Construction works by forms of ownership

IV. Metadata and methodological explanations

Construction work is the result of construction production as a complex of works performed during construction, reconstruction, expansion, major and routine repairs of buildings and structures.

The cost of construction work includes the compilation and preparation of a work plan for the development of construction sites, water supply, heat supply, sewerage, foundation installation, wall construction, plumbing and technical work on the installation of building structures, as well as other contracting works (commissioning work, topsoil removal, technical and cultural work, etc.).

Statistical accounting of construction works is carried out for the volume actually completed during the reporting period, regardless of the time of payment, at actual prices of the reporting period, excluding value added tax.

The compilation of statistical information on the volume of construction work is carried out on the basis of:

- statistical reporting (monthly, annual) of legal entities engaged in construction activities;
- results of quarterly sample surveys of the activities of small enterprises and microfirms;
- statistical reporting of the territorial departments of the State Cadastre Chamber, which monitor the construction of individual houses and non-residential facilities by individuals;
- data from sample statistical surveys of commissioned individual residential houses;

e) statistical assessment of the volume of repairs to individual houses carried out by the economic method.
